Please read and sign below:

I understand that there are certain risks inherent in a wilderness camp experience and am willing to assume the physical risks involved. I also understand that in order to benefit the most from this leadership training experience I must be willing to submit to the leadership and direction of the Central Conference Adventures In Leadership staff members who will be responsible for my personal growth and training. It is my understanding that participants will be divided into small groups. I understand that this is a church-sponsored camp and will conduct myself in a manner appropriate as a representative of Jesus Christ. If not, I understand that I will be sent home at my own expense, with no refund.

March 2013

Dear Church Leader,

How do you equip young leaders in your church? Creating authentic learning environments, safe opportunities for hands-on leadership practice, and meaningful mentoring relationships are tasks that we believe can be accomplished better together than on our own.

The Central Conference of the Evangelical Covenant Church, in partnership with Covenant Point Bible Camp and a team of Central Conference youth pastors, are excited to announce the launch of Adventures in Leadership (AIL) - a small-group, wilderness, discipleship and leadership training experience designed for young people who are entering grades 10-12.

Inspired by a similar model being successfully used in the Northwest Conference for many years, the Central Conference initiated a pilot program last summer with a small group of Central Conference students and youth pastors. We've learned much from this experience - as did the students who participated - and we are pleased to be officially launching AIL Central Conference this summer: June 23rd-29th, at Covenant Point Bible Camp and on trail along the Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore on Lake Superior. The cost of the experience is $150 from each participant, and $150 from each sponsoring church. Optional round-trip bussing is available from Chicago, Elgin, Rockford, Madison, or Fond du Lac for $100. (If your students are accepted, churches are encouraged but not required to invest in your students by providing up to 100% of their costs.)

Our vision is that Adventures in Leadership will become part of the DNA of our Central Conference ministry to youth, and a valuable resource for equipping young people to lead in the Kingdom of God. While the experience is intentionally small in size, we long to see students and youth pastors from every corner of the conference participating, believing that our diversity will add to the richness of the learning experience for all involved.

You and your church have the unique opportunity to select one or two students, who will be entering grades 10-12, for application to AIL. We can only accept two applications per church in order to grant this opportunity to as many churches as possible. You are encouraged to talk about AIL with potential applicants and their families as soon as possible; program materials are included for your use. Space is limited to a maximum of 18 students; preference is given for age and demonstrated leadership potential.

To help a student from your church apply, you may contact Covenant Point Bible Camp and request an application packet, or go to www.cpbcc.com/AIL to download appropriate forms and read more about the experience. Completed applications must be postmarked by Monday, April 15, 2013.

Please feel free to contact Erik Strom at Covenant Point Bible Camp (906.265.2117 or erik@cpbcc.com), or Brian Zahasky at Libertyville Covenant Church (847.362.3308 or brian@libcov.org) with any questions. We seek your prayers as we plan and make decisions about this year's participants.

In Christ,
